

Thanks for writing and for the kind words about my brief blog submission on "cognitive cruciformity." I took a look at your website and was quite impressed. I'm delighted to see someone doing so much in the area of research/writing on cruciformity. Like you, I'm convinced this is an essential but greatly neglected concept in much modern Christian thought. May God prosper your efforts!

Pete Lackey, Minneapolis, MN